

Job Description – Class 1 Driver

Position Title:	Class 1 Driver
Reports to:	Project Supervisor or Operations Manager
Wage:	$25 – $32 per hour, depending on skills and experience

Position Summary:

The Class 1 Driver is responsible for operating heavy transport equipment used in the company's daily environments, and includes the use and care of roll off trucks, wastewater trucks, tractors, lowbed trailers, B-Trains and other transport equipment.

Job Duties and Responsibilities

- Operate heavy transport equipment for company related activities.
- Help staff with labour related duties when a machine is not required for the job
- Adhere to applicable safety and environmental standards, regulations, and company policies
- Ensure equipment is kept clean
- Perform pre/post-operation safety checks
- General daily equipment maintenance, such as greasing, checking and monitoring fluid levels, reporting machine hours and service requirements
- Flexible scheduling (afternoon shift, night shift), may be required
- Other duties as required.

Facility & Equipment

- Reasonably maintain equipment
 - pre/post-operational checks, clean, lubricate and refill equipment
- Participates in training, inspection, investigation, and continuous improvement programs.

Educational and Technical Requirements

- Industry related operational experience
- Class 1 Drivers License
- Sound understanding of mechanical issues involving transport equipment
- Equipment Operator Certificates/Training, an asset
- First Aid and WHMIS certifications, an asset

Experience

The following experience is desired for operating Heavy Transport Equipment:

- Five to ten years of progressive class 1 driving experience

Physical Requirements

- Must be able to lift and control equipment and mats up to 50 lbs.
- Must be able to walk around project sites and equipment
- Manual dexterity is required
- Spatial perception required
- Standing and sitting for extended periods
- Bending, crouching, and kneeling

Personal Attributes

- Positive and friendly approach to customer service
- Driven by deadlines, and highly organized
- Comfortable working within tight deadlines and adapting to changing priorities
- Reliable, dependable, honest, and trustworthy
- Ability to work independently and as part of team
- Takes ownership and pride in accomplishments, tasks, and projects
- Ability to work in a safe and responsible manner
- Attention to detail and critical thinker
- Effective communication skills – written and verbal

Work Environment

- Fast-paced environment
- Work under pressure
- Working outside – exposure to the elements
- Shift work

Employee Name: _____

Employee Signature: _____